

HASH OIL EXPLOSIONS IN STATES WHERE MARIJUANA IS LEGAL

FACTS

- One explosion near Sacramento, displaced 140 people in 2014
- One Northern California burn center have treated 68 people for BHO burns between 2011 and Sept 2014. The average person was burned on 28% of the body
- Five hash oil explosions occurred in Colorado during one week of 2014
- University Hospital Burn Unit, Colorado reported BHO burn victim statistics in December 2014:
 - 2014 = 16
 - 2013 = 11
 - 2012 = 1
 - 2011 = 1

Los Angeles Times reports 17 people were treated in Southern California burn centers due to hash-oil explosions in a 14 month period, 2013-2014.

Adults and children have had to be rescued and have jumped from upper floors and sustained injuries

EXTREME CONSEQUENCES

- The worst HASH OIL explosion was in Bellevue, WA November 5, 2013. The fire lasted 7 hours and took 100 firefighters and police to put it out. One woman died. All 10 apartments were destroyed, causing $1.5 million in property damage and $500,000 worth of belongings. Police had investigated 2 men living there 3 weeks earlier, but they showed their medical marijuana cards and said they did not make hash oil.

5 Hash Oil Deaths:

- A man in Muscoy, CA
- A man in Hawaii
- A man in Oregon
- 2 innocent neighbors in Washington state

82 EXPLOSIONS 2013-2014

- Colorado: 43
- San Diego County: 20
- Seattle area: 7
- Sacramento County 6
- Spokane area: 2
- Portland area: 4

ARE WE GOING TO LET THIS HAPPEN HERE?

LEARN MORE AT POPPOT.ORG